Daily Language

Fix this sentence:
the virginia company Pade for the voyage Of the english colonists Who sailed to america to settle Jamestown in 1607

Circle the adjectives:
The weary settlers landed in a swampy, mosquito-infested area.

Circle the compound words:
Sometimes the settlers got food from the Indians, but without medicine and food, many died.

You are a settler in Jamestown. Write a letter to a loved one in England that explains life in this new land.

__________________________________

__________________________________

__________________________________

__________________________________

__________________________________

__________________________________

__________________________________

__________________________________